WHERE SPORTSMANSHIP IS AN EXPECTATION

*Character, Class
& Integrity*

Mustang Pride

SO PLEASE

Let the Players Play, Let the Coaches Coach, Let the Officials Officiate, Let the Spectators be Positive

Organization

- The more organized and structured the coaches are, the better the team will be.
- Pre-Season preparation.
- Practice plan.
- Uniforms and equipment are accounted for by all levels at the end of the year.
- Keeping attendance and tracking records.
- Fundraising projects.
- Press Box and Concession Stand.
- Scouting of Opponents.
- Field Maintenance and safety.

Public Relations

- Media (pictures and interviews with the press).
- Clinics and talks with youth baseball and the community.
- Umpire Cal Ripken or Babe Ruth games.
- Senior Day, end of the year festivities and Banquets.

Coaching Expectations

- To be respectful, loyal, and honest to all of our players. The coaching staff will expect the same in return.
- To work the players hard so that they may achieve their goals on and off the field.
- To assist you in any way possible now- and after graduation.
- To make all decisions predicated on what is best for the team and then what is best for the individual.

- To do everything within our power to make TWHS an exemplary place to go to school and play sports.
- To help you mature as a young man.
- To help you reach your goals (goal setting sheets, meetings, daily coaching, etc.).
